International Network of Children's Ministry Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

CASTLE ROCK, CO – The Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability (ECFA) announced today the accreditation of International Network of Children's Ministry of Castle Rock, CO.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fund-raising.

International Network of Children's Ministry joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 35 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

"We are pleased to include in our membership a ministry committed to equipping children's leaders with tools to help them reach children with the message of Jesus," said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 1980, International Network of Children's Ministry (www.incm.org) is a non-denominational organization focused on children's and family ministry. The mission of INCM is to train, network and resource Christian leaders through children's pastors' conferences, religion in public schools seminars, parenting seminars, and children's ministry training.

To learn more about International Network of Children's Ministry and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch™, ECFA's program that matches God's servants with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories. It is ECFA's newest online feature that allows you to quickly and easily find giving opportunities.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance. For more information about ECFA, including information about accreditation and a listing of ECFA-accredited members, visit www.ECFA.org or call 1-800-323-9473.
